

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ulrich medical USA® to Host Fifth Annual Cage Madness® Advanced Surgeon Education Forum on Complex Spine Applications

Cage Madness 2015: Expandable Cage Technologies & Complex Spine Solutions

ST. LOUIS, MO (February 9, 2015) – ulrich medical USA, Inc. announced the 2015 faculty and program highlights for the fifth annual Cage Madness Spine Education Forum and Bioskills Training to be held in Las Vegas, Nevada on March 21, 2015. The training will take place at the Medical Education and Research Institute of Nevada (MERIN).

The course faculty includes:

Dean Chou, M.D.

Associate Professor of Neurosurgery
The UCSF Spine Center - The University of California, San Francisco
The Mini-Open Posterior Transpedicular Corpectomy

John G. DeVine, M.D.

Professor and Chief of Spine Surgery, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
Medical College of Georgia, Georgia Regents University - Augusta, Georgia
Cervical Spondylitic Myelopathy and Kyphotic Deformity

William E. Neway III, D.O.

Assistant Professor, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery
The University of Alabama at Birmingham
Posterior Thoracolumbar Corpectomy Techniques

Wilson Z. Ray, M.D.

Assistant Professor, Department of Neurological Surgery
Washington University School of Medicine - St. Louis, MO
Decision Making in Metastatic Spine Disease

The faculty will each present a lecture relating to complex spine surgery techniques in vertebral body replacement, as well as lead a bioskills training station where surgeons can observe and practice advanced surgery techniques in complete complex spine solutions. For surgeons interested in attending this program, please email your inquiry to t.carter@ulrichmedicalusa.com.

###

About ulrich medical USA

ulrich medical USA, Inc. is a privately-held subsidiary of ulrich medical®, an innovative medical technology company headquartered in Ulm, Germany which is celebrating 103 years in business in 2015. For additional information about ulrich medical USA, please visit the company website at www.ulrichmedicalusa.com.